MINISTER'S SERMON ON THE WAR WITH SPAIN

What is war? It is not only just a battle, but is a proper finishing of man's wickedness. It is a constant return to the principles that God has given to the world. The world God has given to man is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angel, to help to overcome the devil. This is a great battle-ground, where the devil has the advantage, and where God has put man in the position of an angle