HIPPLE ALIVE AND IN EUROPE NOW RUMORED

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—A rumor is in circulation that Hippie is not dead, but is in Europe. According to this story, a body was sent to Europe and submitted for identification. That body, it was said, was the body of Hippie. Those of the directors who were present at the funeral denied the story. They admitted, though, that they did not have any information on the subject. When the rumor was carried to Coroner Blaise Jones at Northampton, his wife said that he was out of town. "No, I don't know anything," he said. "I can't see the coroner."

JERUSALEM, Sept. 1.—Mrs. Zvi Segal, wife of Adjutant Segal of the Jewish Legion, has denied her husband's claims of hypnotism. According to the story, she has seen the hypnotist in action in London, and has seen the hypnotist perform several tricks. But she is not convinced of his claims.

NUCLEAR SOCIETY

A couple of weeks ago, I was down in the town of Whitefield, New Hampshire, with a friend. We were wandering around and came across a group of people who were experimenting with atomic energy. I was very interested in what they were doing, and I began to talk to them. They were very friendly, and we had a good time. We ended up staying with them for a few days and learning a lot about nuclear energy.
