SOCIETY

It is reported in the social circles that Miss DeWitt, the daughter of the late Senator DeWitt, who was a prominent figure in the political world, has decided to marry Mr. Smith, a wealthy businessman from New York. The wedding ceremony is scheduled to take place next week at the DeWitt mansion in New York. Miss DeWitt is well-liked and respected by all, and her wedding is expected to be a grand affair attended by many socialites.

NATIVE SONS WILL WORK TO PROTECT LANDMARKS

Leaders in Order of Kamehameha Declare Intention to Campaign

Preservation of Historical Relics will be made a feature of the work of the Order of Kamehameha, the new society now being organized by young Hawaiians. The objectives set forth are similar to those of the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West, the California organization made up of persons born in the state.

But not only is the plan of the Hawaiians to have the usual beneficent clauses in the laws of the order, but already is there a purpose to spread the order over the entire islands and to make incidental to the general benefit features, the keeping intact of the relics and the places which have become historical through the association of great men or the occurrence of great events in the past.

Something in this line has been done by the Historical Society, which is already at work upon the collection of data, and as well the conservation of the buildings, monuments, temples and similar structures. But at best it is held by young Hawaiians, that this cannot be taken as a proper product of the relics and places which hold high places in the affection of the Hawaiians.

The Order of Kamehameha will preserve the historical legends of their race, and will do all in their power to make the task of conserving the relics more easy and light. It is said that there would do all in his power to bring about such a general movement as would result in the keeping up of all the places and relics in the islands. And as a way with the history of the people and its development. It is expected that after a time the government will be asked to secure and hold as public recreation grounds the home of Kings and queens, the sites of battles great, historic, and similar spots and structures. This would insure the perpetuation of historical objects and would keep alive the names of great men and women of the past.

HEALTH NEEDFUL to have ever lived touch us as today. The band, which we do so many amusing and skillful things, the eyes that see, the ears that hear, the hand that touches, the heart that feels, are all as necessary to us as the sun in the day.

The word "safety" is used in various senses, and is properly employed to denote the state of being safe or secure from injury. It is also applied to the art of preserving life from perils and dangers.
