Peru Gives America Love Feast at Washington Day Banquet

President Pardo Praises Roosevelt and Toasts Fleet at Navy Function

LIMA, Feb. 22.—A magnificent banquet was given this evening by President Pardo to the officers of the American fleet in honor of Washington's birthday. Two hundred and fifty of these guests were present.

The exhibition hall, where the banquet was held, was beautifully decorated and the stars and stripes everywhere on view.

In the room of the royal residence, the banquet was held, which is in the center of the capital. The president of Peru, together with his ministers and the officers of the American fleet, were present. The president of Peru was accompanied by his minister of foreign affairs, and the officers of the fleet were led by Admiral Dewey.

The arrival of the American fleet in Callao was received with enthusiasm by the citizens of the city. The president of Peru, in his speech, expressed his desire to see the fleet again in Callao.

President Pardo Praises Roosevelt

In his speech, President Pardo praised the American fleet and expressed his desire to see the fleet again in Callao.

House Will Investigate Charge of Graft in Submarine Boats

Lilley Satisfies Congressmen of Sincerity by Calling a Correspondent a Liars

Imperative Question No. 39

Why Do Men Prefer Blondes?

For the most original or writer to this question—and the bitterest the better—The Call will pay FIVE DOLLARS. For the next five answers The Call will pay ONE DOLLAR each. Prize winning answers will be published next week and checks mailed to the winners at once. Make your answer short and address it to IMPERATIVE QUESTIONS, THE CALL.