PRINCE IS EMPLOYED AS CLERK

FUTURE RULER OF GERMANY WORKS DAILY

ENjoys CONFIDENCE OF ENTIRE COUNTRY

Frederick William IV in shining armor, and dressed in his blue and red uniform, was reviewed by the military and naval forces of the German Empire on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of his reign. The prince received a ovation, and was cheered by the crowd as he passed by. The ceremony was attended by a large number of important persons, including members of the government, diplomats, and soldiers. The prince was also presented with a gold sword, which he wears in his hand as a symbol of his authority. The event was marked by a display of military power, and it served as a reminder of the importance of the prince in the history of Germany.

CROWN PRINCE FREDERICK WILHELM OF GERMANY

WOMAN DREW GUN, CHARGE

THREATENED, BIT FORMER HUSBAND'S HAND

E. WELCH IS TREATED AT HOSPITAL

Defense Divided With Attempted to Beat Him, but Was Power to Him

A case of attempted murder was reported today in the city of Los Angeles. The incident occurred at a house on the corner of 1st and Broadway. According to reports, the defendant, E. Welch, was seen carrying a gun and threatening to shoot the victim. The victim, who was not identified, was taken to the hospital for treatment of injuries. The case is under investigation by the police, and the defendant has been arrested.

FAST TRAIN CRASHES INTO FREIGHT: TWO KILLED

Strike on Queen and Downtown Railroads

Railroad engineers and workers were the victims of a tragic accident today. A train collided with a freight train, killing two people and injuring several others. The accident occurred near the downtown area, and the cause is being investigated.

MISSING MANUFACTURER IS NO LONGER AMONG LOST

Edward Halbach Returns From England After Several Weeks' Conference With French Officials

Edward Halbach, a prominent manufacturer, was reported missing last week. However, it has since been learned that he returned from England, where he had been attending a conference with French officials. The case is being investigated by the police.

LUSITANIA'S SISTER SHIP MAY BREAK ALL RECORDS

New Cunard Line to Excel New Predecessor in Speed-Starts on Her Journey November 10

The newest vessel of the Cunard Line, the Lucania, is expected to break all records in speed when she sets sail on her maiden voyage next month. The Lucania is the sister ship of the Lusitania, which was lost in World War I. The new vessel is expected to travel faster than any other ship of her size.

U.S. SENATOR DOLLIVER SCORES ARMY CANE

Speaker Protests System Will Never Be Repealed—Disagrees with House Eradicating Disease at Capital

The Speaker of the House made a statement today expressing his disagreement with the House's decision to eradicate disease at the capital. He stated that the system will never be repealed, and that it is a waste of money. The decision has been met with controversy, and it is expected to be challenged in court.

ENACT LAWS AGAINST SEDUCTION CEREMONIES

Hindu Legislative Council Takes Up Measure to Prevent Recent Insults to Europeans

The Hindu Legislative Council is considering a measure to enact laws against the seduction ceremonies that have been taking place recently in the country. The ceremonies are considered offensive to Europeans, and they are expected to be challenged in court.

Fighting Bob' Slaps San Francisco

Evans Ready for Frolic or a Fight

Admiral Fears Hospitality of San Francisco

Commodore of Battleship Fleet Speaks Unofficially of a "Certain Gang" on Coast in Speech at the Hotel Club

The Commodore of the Battleship Fleet, Admiral of the Navy, spoke yesterday on the coast in a speech at the Hotel Club. He stated that he feared the hospitality of San Francisco, and that he would be careful about where he went. The speech has been met with controversy, and it is expected to be challenged in court.

KILLS SERVICE MAN

WOMAN WORKS AT GOVERNMENT OFFICE

A woman worked as a government officer and was the victim of a tragic accident today. She was killed when a car crashed into her, and the cause is being investigated.

Hotel Burns, Loss $30,000

While the weapons of the hotel are being used for the defense of the city, a fire swept through the building, causing considerable damage. The cause of the fire is being investigated.

MISSING MANUFACTURER RETURNS FROM ENGLAND

A prominent manufacturer, Edward Halbach, was reported missing last week. However, it has since been learned that he has returned from England, where he had been attending a conference with French officials. The case is being investigated by the police.

HOLY WAR IS DECLARED

BY SULTAN'S BROTHER

A statement was published today by the Sultan's brother, in which he declared a holy war against the British. The statement has been met with controversy, and it is expected to be challenged in court.