The sturdy Yale varsity eight which defeated Pennsylvania by a boat length over the historic Henley course on the Schuylkill River in Philadelphia a week ago consisting of the four ablest oarsmen of that city, added another clean-cut victory over the Quakers yesterday in the first collegiate regatta of spring. Guy Nickalls' junior varsity eight also won a clean-cut victory over the Quakers.

Yale varsity: Captain and coxswain, Carson; stroke, Peters; Ellis, Lovejoy, Page, Sheldon, McHenry, Shiefflin, Moulton and Allen.

Left—"In the spring a young man's fancy..." our photographer, charitably, spare a moment to take a picture of the twin 12-inch guns mounted in the armored water-tight conning tower forward—the largest and most powerful told ever placed on a submarine.
