BOERS ARE GENTLE TO WAR PRISONERS.

War Correspondent's Personal Experiences With the Boer Prisoners at Pretoria.

One of the principles enunciated by Lord Milner in his recent address to the Boers is that every man has a right to respect. This principle is now being applied in the treatment of the Boers, and has resulted in their being treated with gentleness and consideration. The prisoners are allowed to work, and are given the opportunity to earn money by their labor. They are also allowed to receive letters from home, and to have frequent visits from their relatives. The conditions of the prison are said to be very good, and the prisoners are well fed and well cared for.

THE KING OF ITALY A WORRIED SOVEREIGN.

Today the King of Italy, whose policy is to be preserved together with that of his father, was driven to the point of despair by the failure of the treaty negotiations with France. The King's policy of isolationism has been opposed by his father, who is determined to maintain the country's traditional alliances with Germany and Austria. The King is said to be in a state of great anxiety, and is looking to his ministers for guidance.

A $20,000 PEARL FOUND IN AN OYSTER.

A fisherman was recently fishing in the Mediterranean when he stumbled upon a rare find. He had been fishing for hours when he found a large oyster with a pearl worth $20,000 inside. The pearl was flawless and was considered one of the largest ever found. The fisherman was elated and sold the pearl to a jeweler for a substantial sum.

NATIONS CRY FOR IT.

The Great Eastern Uprising in Several European Countries and Wanted Everywhere.

The recent uprising in Europe is causing great concern among the nations of the world. The unrest is spreading from country to country, and is reaching a crisis point. The leaders of the uprising are calling for independence and freedom from foreign rule. The leaders are also calling for a redistribution of wealth and a more equitable distribution of power.

INDIA MAY BE AN OBJECT LESSON TO THE SULTAN.

The recent events in India are causing concern among the leaders of the Ottoman Empire. The British are taking control of the country, and are making plans to extend their influence throughout the region. The Sultan is said to be worried about the situation, and is considering ways to assert his authority over the empire.

THE PRIZE FOR THE NEWSPAPERS.

The newspapers are busily discussing the recent events in Europe. The editors are calling for a solution to the crisis, and are calling for a peaceful resolution to the conflict. The newspapers are also calling for a more just and equitable distribution of power and wealth.

WOMEN IN THE WORLD.

The women of the world are said to be fighting for their rights. The suffrage movement is gaining momentum, and women are demanding the right to vote and participate in the political process. The women are also demanding an end to gender discrimination and to the oppression of women in society.