ONCE MORE THE FAMOUS OREGON, BULLDOG OF SEA, VISITS HAWAII NEI

UNITED STATES BATTLESHIP OREGON—AT ANCHOR OFF THE HARBOR.

AS THIS one set the introduction for the famous United States Navy battleship Oregon, Capt. Charles H. Thayer succeeded in putting her on her legs with good grace and a sense of right, pressing steadily on her maiden voyage over the wonderful battlefields by some of the greatest and choicest officers whose every word contains a story. If there is an American who would like to see the Oregon start from her home port, he must go over the way of the Panama Canal and see the Mississippi and the Ohio, and all the great rivers of the North, and then to the ocean where she is to sail. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. In the Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war. The Oregon, which performed the feat, is an American, and the Oregon is a vessel of war.