NEW YORK, March 11. Through the kindness of Mr. J. W. Thorpe, we have received a photograph of the Flags of the Frozen North, which we have heretofore been unable to obtain. The picture is a perfect reproduction of the original, and is a faithful representation of the colors of the American flag.

In this connection, it may be well to note that the American flag is the national emblem of the United States of America, and is a symbol of the freedom and liberty which is enjoyed by its citizens. It is a symbol of the nation's pride and prestige, and is a source of national pride and inspiration.
