SPAIN IS DEFIANT
Full of Hope and Determined to Fight.

SEMI. OFFICIAL NOTE OUT
Says Powers Make a Mistake in Assuming That Spain Is Defeated.

The First Aid Central Committee of the American Red Cross has sent a telegram to the American Red Cross Organization in Spain, expressing the committee's belief that Spain is defying the powers by its determination to fight.

The committee states that the powers have made a mistake in assuming that Spain is defeated and that the Spanish people are determined to continue the war.

WASHINGTON, June 10—A note has been received at the American Red Cross headquarters from the First Aid Central Committee of the American Red Cross in Spain, expressing the committee's belief that Spain is determined to continue the war.

The committee states that the powers have made a mistake in assuming that Spain is defeated and that the Spanish people are determined to continue the war.

The committee's message is as follows:

"We believe that Spain is defying the powers by its determination to fight. We believe that the powers have made a mistake in assuming that Spain is defeated. We believe that the Spanish people are determined to continue the war."

The message is signed by the First Aid Central Committee of the American Red Cross in Spain.------------------------------

WOOD AND ROOSEVELT'S ROUGH RIDERS.
The "Rough Riders" composed of the 1st United States Infantry (a regular infantry regiment) and the 1st United States Volunteer Cavalry (a volunteer cavalry unit) were formed in 1898 to fight in the Spanish-American War.

The regiment was commanded by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and included many men who later became prominent in American politics, including future presidents William McKinley, Grover Cleveland, and William Howard Taft.

The "Rough Riders" played a significant role in the war, particularly in the Battle of San Juan Hill, where they earned the nickname "Teddy's Boys." Their deeds were celebrated in popular culture and helped to cement Roosevelt's reputation as a national hero.

The regiment's legacy continues to this day, as the 1st United States Infantry is still known as "Teddy's Boys." The regiment has served in many conflicts since its formation, and its traditions and symbols remain an integral part of the American military experience.
