"while the timid and conservative are waiting for business to 'pick up,' the hustling advertiser picks up business by persistent persuasion."

HE OPENED HIS MOUTH JUST 8 TIMES

TO VOTE ON PUBLIC QUESTIONS IN THE TWO SESSIONS OF CONGRESS.

"WILLIES" RECORD

Refute 9—Announce Bill Introduced 3—Private Relief Bills Introduced 1—Private Bills Introduced 2—Privy Council Bills Proposed 8—Repeal Bills Submitted 2—Regulation Bills 4—Amendments Offered 9

Washington, Wednesday—The full faculty of Congressmen William Hale "Willie" Knapp (r) is known for his thoroughness and absolute devotion to the public interest in the sessions of Congress. In the last two sessions of Congress, the period allotted for him to speak has been limited, but he has not been altogether absent. The result of his efforts has been a bill that is expected to become law.

The bill, known as the "public interest" bill, seeks to provide relief to the victims of natural disasters. It is expected to be passed by the House and Senate in the coming weeks.

Gen. Kuroki Hands Kuropatkin a Severe Drubbing and Defeat

Completely defeats the Russian Forces—All the Russian Positions East of Hal-China Have Been Abandoned—Whole Squadrons of Cosacks Taken

In hand to hand combat the Japs lost men and horses. Russian officers are wounded—Infant. Tiny Reserve.

PREPARING FOR SIEGE

Russia Received Big Guns from Kronstadt to Parity Kuroki—Kuropatkin's Rule in a New Sign in the East— budding Impressions from Proposed Retreat.

Moscow, Thursday—Gen.

Inhale has telegraphed as follows under today's date, to the present

"According to reports the Emperor commander, in the action of May 30, near Vasilievka, there were indications of victory in the Russian army, but the general information is that the Japs have gained a victory."

The Russian government has decided to continue the present campaign, and the Japanese are said to have decided to withdraw.

The situation is now grave for both sides, and the Japanese are expected to make a determined effort to destroy the Russian army in the coming days.

Things Are Hardly Going Into Direction

The President's yacht, Mayflower, is expected to arrive from New York sometime today.

The vessel, which is the property of President Wilson, is expected to arrive in Washington today.

SISTERS ORTHOPEDISTS

Los Angeles, Wednesday—Three sisters orthopedists of the Pacific Electric Railway company, taking the place formerly held by Mr. E. E. Randolph.

The sisters, who are well known in the railroad world, took up their duties on Wednesday.

The姐妹es, who are well known in the railroad world, took up their duties on Wednesday.

Misses G. C. P. in the Miles of Fight

The "Misses G. C. P.," as they are known in railway circles, are expected to take over the duties of Mr. E. E. Randolph, who is the former president of the Pacific Electric Railway company.

Stole a Gun and Was Arrested

OFFICER JOHNSON GETS ANOTHER ENEMY—HEROISM—\S ICES INTO A HOUSE AND STOLE\N THE RIFLE.

Dr. E. Johnson, the officer who saved the life of the President last Sunday night, has been arrested for the second time this month.

Dr. Johnson saved the life of the President last Sunday night, and was arrested again for the second time this month.

Harrin Succeeds Col. Epes Randolph

THE ESSEX TAKES CONTROL OF HUNTINGDON ELECTRIC LINES.

This week, the first of the submarines left for the Hold in the City—Expedition to San Diego. Now On.

Los Angeles, Wednesday—W. F. Hill is to be the new president of the Pacific Electric Railway company, taking the place formerly held by Mr. E. E. Randolph.

This is to say that Mr. E. E. Randolph, the former president of the Pacific Electric Railway company, has been succeeded by Mr. W. F. Hill, who is to take charge of the operations of the company.

The new president, who is a well known railroad man, has been associated with the Pacific Electric Railway company for many years, and is well qualified to take charge of the operations of the company.

Harrin, a man of much experience in the railroad world, has been chosen to take charge of the operations of the company.

MISSIONARIES OF THE RAILROADS

Men of power and influence in the railroad world, on being told that there were no "missionaries of the railroad," and that the railroad lines were in the hands of men who had never been to the Orient, were not at all surprised that he had done so.

They are men who have done much in the railroad world, who have been associated with the railroad industry for many years, and who have been associated with the railroad industry for many years.

They are men of power and influence in the railroad world, and they are able to speak with authority on these matters.

RUBBER ARE CUITTING

Paris, Wednesday—The Paris authorities have decided to cut the supply of rubber in the city, and the supply is now being cut off to the extent of 25 per cent.

The supply is now being cut off to the extent of 25 per cent.

(Continued on Page Four)