GERMAN HORDES FAIL TO PIERCE WARSAW LINES

Russian Defences Hold as Kaisers Hurl Three Armies on Capital.

STRIVE IN VAIN TO CROSS NAREW

Berlin Reports Progress South of Lake-Encircled Russian Counter Attacks

London July 24. The Kaisers troops are striving in vain to cross the Narw at St. Mihiel. The British government is still studying whether fresh lines of attack can be started. The Russian front in the region of Silesia is still held by the Austrians, who have not been able to advance. The French are still struggling to hold the Rhone. The British government has decided to extend the French line and to relieve the pressure on the Russian front. The Russian army is believed to be moving toward the frontier. The French have been able to hold their lines and do not expect to be able to advance.

REPORT GERMANS MASSING TROOPS AT ST. MIHIEL

London Experts Think New Thrust at Verdun Is Likely.

July 24. The Germans are massing troops at St. Mihiel, the British government being notified by the French government. The French have been able to hold their lines and do not expect to be able to advance.

AUSTRIANS MAKE PREPARATIONS TO QUIT GORIZIA

Will Not Even Wait for Next General Attack by Italians.

BOMBARDO ORTONA, ON THE ADRIATIC

Austrian Ships Also Shell Railroad on Coast, Rome Reports.

Three Italian cruisers and the battleship Giasone have been reported sunk by the Austrians. The Italian government has been notified by the French government. The French have been able to hold their lines and do not expect to be able to advance.

FRENCH SUBMARINE LOST

Jired, 1911 Hotel, Missing Since April—Had 24 Men Aboard.

The French submarine lost on the 24th was the Jired. The French government has been notified by the Italian government. The Italian government has been able to hold their lines and do not expect to be able to advance.

GREECE BARS PRESS ATTACKS ON ITALY

Venizelos Party Sees in Order Better Attitude of King and Court.

In Constantipole, June 24. The Venizelos party sees in order better attitude of the King and Court. They have been able to hold their lines and do not expect to be able to advance.

SWISS FEAR FOR FUTURE

Lisbon, July 24. The Venizelos party sees in order better attitude of the King and Court. They have been able to hold their lines and do not expect to be able to advance.

HEED NORWAY'S PROTEST

British Regret Violation of Neutrality of Waters.

London July 24. British government has been notified by the Norwegian government of the violation of the neutrality of its waters. The Norwegian government has been able to hold their lines and do not expect to be able to advance.

ONE MINUTE, MR. MAN

before you close your desk and hurry away this noon to the golf links, the sea shores or some other week-end engagement, let us whisper in your ear, two words—

YOUR HOME

Your physical home, whatever it be a big mansion or a little cottage in the country, a large or small house in the city, a big or little apartment—whatever and wherever it be—our home! shall have something to say to you about your home in connection with the

August Sale of Furniture

First Day of Courty, Tuesday, July 27

Take stock of your home. See what condition it is in physically. Does it need new furniture? Does it need new furnishings? Have you let it run down? Is it cheerful? Is it homey? Is it comfortable? Can you make it better and more cheerful in any way?

Our announcements on Monday morning and evening will concern YOUR home and show you how you can make it still happier.

JOHN WANAMAKER

Broadway at Ninth Street, New York