ROUT BOYOTTERS IN A HOT FRAY

Blood Flows at a Blacksmith’s Shop on Green Street.

F. J. Demartini Objects to His Shop Being Called Non-Union.

There was a sharp split in F. J. Demartini’s blacksmith shop on Green Street yesterday afternoon, which almost ended in bloodshed.

A crowd of 50 people, including members of the Democratic and Republican clubs, immediately surrounded the shop, which had been closed for the day in the early afternoon.

Mr. Demartini, who is a Democrat, had just been dismissed from the shop and was leaving when a group of Republicans, including F. J. Demartini, entered.

Fighting broke out and a number of people were injured before the police arrived and broke up the crowd.

A number of people were treated for injuries at the hospital and the shop was closed for the day.
