GETTING IN THE FIRST BLOW IN NAVAL BATTLE

This Is Most Important Aim of Commanders During Modern Sea Fights—No Such Wholesale Killings on Land

The following interview with an officer of high rank in the United States navy of special interest because of the light it throws upon recent events in warfare on the seas.

PROBLEMS FOR MEDICAL MEN IN PRESENT WAR

Military Surgeons Face Difficulties of Treating Injuries, the Like of Which They Have Never Seen Before

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.

In war, as in life itself, anything may happen. But the calendar of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair from the average batten and flame of a medical man in the trenches. The latter is a far more complex and variable element. The preparation of a civilian surgeon in peacetime is a different affair.