JAP SHIP SINKS AND OVER 100 ARE MISSING; 40 SAUDED

MONY — 11:11

TOKYO.—The Teikoku Maru, playing between Kobe and Doroi, was lost at sea with some 230 men on board, when it went to the bottom on its return from the Manchuria run.

The ship was carrying 400 tons of coal, and although 143 crew members were rescued there were still 212 others believed missing.

There was no water and everything was managed off in a most orderly manner.

The stricken vessel was controlled by W. C. Wright, a member of the crew.

Several boats were made to the rescue and three boats reached the Jap ship.

All passengers were left behind, but there was no immediate report as to what became of them.
