WASHINGTON: This city, Nov. 21.—Admiral Fletcher, making his way across the Atlantic en route to Europe, to-day arrived at Mazatlan, Mexico, with three American destroyers. He had been ordered to Mazatlan, on the coast of Mexico, for the purpose of protecting American vessels from the pirates of the Pacific. Admiral Fletcher is a market for gold and silver, and is the leader of the Mexican government.

GARRANZA IS MUCH AT ODDS WITH WILSON

Commenting on Reported Attitude of President as on Mleton, Wilson's figure shows a marked change in the past few weeks. In the past he has been a man of action, but in the last few weeks he has been a man of thought. His attitude is much in line with his past actions. He is no longer a man of action, but a man of thought. The change in his attitude is marked, and his figure shows a marked change in the past few weeks. In the past he has been a man of action, but in the last few weeks he has been a man of thought. His attitude is much in line with his past actions. He is no longer a man of action, but a man of thought. The change in his attitude is marked, and his figure shows a marked change in the past few weeks.

MEXICO, Nov. 21.—Carranza, the leader of the revolution, is at odds with Wilson. Carranza has been a man of action, but in the last few weeks he has been a man of thought. His attitude is much in line with his past actions. He is no longer a man of action, but a man of thought. The change in his attitude is marked, and his figure shows a marked change in the past few weeks. In the past he has been a man of action, but in the last few weeks he has been a man of thought. His attitude is much in line with his past actions. He is no longer a man of action, but a man of thought. The change in his attitude is marked, and his figure shows a marked change in the past few weeks.