Fleet's Officers and Men See the City and Mountains

GIVEN RARE TRIP TO MT. TAMALPAIS

Hundred Chiefs and Warrant Officers Guests During Delightful Trip

Today's Program Issued by Fleet Committee

The fleet will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on May 13, and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on May 14. Visitors will be able to see the interior of the battleships and destroyers, and will be permitted to walk on the decks of the ships. The fleet will be stationed in the Golden Gate for the duration of the event.

The fleet will be followed by a parade of the United States Army, the United States Marine Corps, and the United States Navy, which will proceed from the fleet to the Bay Bridge, where it will be joined by the United States Army Air Corps. The parade will be led by the band of the United States Army, and will include the United States Marine Corps and the United States Navy bands.

The parade will proceed through the streets of San Francisco, and will be followed by a reception at the San Francisco Fair Grounds, where the fleet will be anchored.

The event is expected to attract thousands of visitors, and will be a major attraction for the city of San Francisco. The fleet will be in port until May 15, and will depart for the Panama Canal on May 16.

The fleet will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on May 13, and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on May 14. Visitors will be able to see the interior of the battleships and destroyers, and will be permitted to walk on the decks of the ships. The fleet will be stationed in the Golden Gate for the duration of the event.

The fleet will be followed by a parade of the United States Army, the United States Marine Corps, and the United States Navy, which will proceed from the fleet to the Bay Bridge, where it will be joined by the United States Army Air Corps. The parade will be led by the band of the United States Army, and will include the United States Marine Corps and the United States Navy bands.

The parade will proceed through the streets of San Francisco, and will be followed by a reception at the San Francisco Fair Grounds, where the fleet will be anchored.

The event is expected to attract thousands of visitors, and will be a major attraction for the city of San Francisco. The fleet will be in port until May 15, and will depart for the Panama Canal on May 16.