Great Armada Sails Away on Voyage to the Orient

CROWDS ARE SILENT FEAR EAGAN HAS KILLED HIMSELF

The triple murder ofMrs. John C. Eagan, Mrs. George Eagan, and Mrs. Harry Eagan, which occurred last night, was an event which has created an amount of consternation in San Francisco. It appears that the Eagan family had been the subject of much speculation and fear, as their disappearance had been reported to the police. The trio was last seen at the Eagan residence, where they were found dead with wounds suggestive of murder. The investigation is still in progress, and the police are working diligently to determine the cause of death and the identity of the murderer.
