VICE-PRESIDENT CHARGED WITH PLAIN LYING

Sensational Document Withdrawn From Senate
By Foraker—Also Accuses Members of Congress

WASHINGTON, March 31—The senatorial investigation of the business interests of the nation's capital by Senator William H. Taft, the Republican, has been interrupted by the filing of a sensational charge against Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks.

This charge, made by Representative Foraker, a Republican from Ohio, is that during his administration as postmaster general he was a party to a conspiracy to defraud the government of money paid to him.

The document in question is an affidavit sworn to by Foraker, and it is alleged to be proof of the existence of the conspiracy.

The affidavit states that Fairbanks was involved in a scheme to defraud the government of money paid to him, and that he was a party to a conspiracy to Battleship Connecticut With Old Navy to Arrive in San Diego

WASHINGTON, March 31—The famous Connecticut, which was silent during the first few months of the war, is now nearing San Diego, where she will join the old Navy, which has been active in the war against Germany.

The Connecticut is one of the most powerful ships in the navy, and her presence in the Pacific will be a great encouragement to the people of the United States.
