FIVE TENEMENT FLAMES.
A TENEMENT TRAGEDY.
Mother and Four Children Perish—Many Others Rescued.

Four women and their mother were found suffocated in a tenement in the East Side yesterday afternoon, when they were discovered by a man who entered the building to inquire after his mother.

The fire started in the third floor rear of the building, and spread to the entire structure, which was occupied by a large number of families in poverty-stricken strata.

The building was totally destroyed, and the damage is estimated at $25,000. The loss to the tenants is estimated at $25,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

In its natural form.

CERÁLLOS & CO. DELAY.
Complication of Investments of Firm Causes Trouble.

William C. Homan, president of H. M. Homan & Co., who was granted a leave of absence by the firm's board of directors, has been recommended by the board to the New York Stock Exchange for a study of the firm's investments.

The delay was caused by the fact that the firm's investments are not yet in a position to be sold. The board of directors has decided to continue the firm's investments until the market is ready.

BLOW AT BONDSMEN.
Women Taken in Bid to Be Held as Witnesses Only.

A woman was taken in a bid to be held as witnesses only. She was accused of violating the anti-sweatshop law.

The woman was accused of violating the anti-sweatshop law. She was arrested and taken to the police station.

INDEBTED.
Railroads, Grain Firms and Individuals Must Stand Trial.

The railroads, grain firms, and individuals are being sued in the district court for failing to pay interest on their debts.

The railroads, grain firms, and individuals are being sued in the district court for failing to pay interest on their debts. The suit was filed by the creditors who have not been paid.

WOMAN FORGUES BURLIGARS.
Keeps Intruders from 800,000 in Jewelry.

A woman was arrested for theft. She was accused of stealing jewelry.

The woman was arrested for theft. She was accused of stealing jewelry. She was taken to the police station.

NEW RULE FOR IRELAND.
Main Features of Government Plan Said To Be Agreeable To.

The government has introduced a new rule for Ireland. The rule is said to be agreeable to the people.

The government has introduced a new rule for Ireland. The rule is said to be agreeable to the people. The rule has been approved by the people.

NEWER CLAIM SENTENCES.
First Conviction in County as Result of Controller's Cruises.

The controller has introduced a new rule for the county. The rule is said to be agreeable to the people.

The controller has introduced a new rule for the county. The rule is said to be agreeable to the people. The rule has been approved by the people.