Rheumatism

Rheumatism cannot be rubbed away

Whenever an attack of Rheumatism comes on with its throsting muscles, twisting nerves, and aching, painful joints, relief must be had at once, and any treatment that will ease the pain and delay the suffering is desirable. A good lotion or plaster, or some home remedy will usually give temporary relief and comfort, but Rheumatism is more than skin deep and cannot be rubbed away, nor can it be drawn out with a plaster.

All food taken into the body contains, in some form, the elements necessary to nourish and sustain the different parts. One portion is used for the making of blood, another for muscle, another for bones, and so on. After these different properties have been extracted there remains a portion that is useless, or waste matter, which is intended to be carried off by nature; but the sluggish, inactive condition of the different members interferes with the workings of nature, and this refuse is left in the system to scar and form uric and other acids, which are absorbed into the blood. The acrid, irritating matter in the circulation settles in the joints, muscles, nerves, and bones, and it is this that produces the pain, inflammation, swelling and other disagreeable symptoms of Rheumatism.

Rheumatism cured by S.S.S.

Mrs. Edna M. Pfeifer, of 106 Eubank St., Indianapolis, reports: "I have been suffering for a long time from rheumatism, but a good friend of mine suggested S.S.S., which I ordered right away. I am very pleased with the results and am much better.

S.S.S. Purely Vegetable

S. S. S. is a natural remedy, made entirely of roots, herbs, and
