Battleship Louisiana Launched Successfully

Uncle Sam's Great Fighting Machine Plunges Into the Water at Newport News—She Is Christened by a Beautiful Creole.

Judge George O'Reilly Dying in a Hospital

Well-Known Character of Washington, Once Consular Agent at Zanzibar—Shot Rock Salt at the Queen.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN THE WAGGAMAN CASE

All Parties Waiting for Statement of Army and Navy—May Be Finished Monday.

CRAM: "NO MONEY TO INSPECT THE SLAUGHTERHOUSES"

Chicago Packer Says: "NOTHING TO ARBITRATE"

WASHINGTON, SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 27, 1904.

Price One Cent.

TYPHOID FEVER SPREADS SLOWLY THROUGHOUT CITY

Seven More Cases Reported by Health Department Up to Noon.

The water is blamed.

Local Authorities Are Powerless to Act Except in Sending Out Warnings.

This fact has occurred among typhoid fever developed in Washington, and the affected person was removed to the hospital by the health department, not less than seven cases are reported to have been sent in the city since the first case was reported.

All Blame Water. No effort can be made, except by the health department. The affected person was removed to the hospital by the health department.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN THE WAGGAMAN CASE

All Parties Waiting for Statement of Army and Navy—May Be Finished Monday.

CRAM: "NO MONEY TO INSPECT THE SLAUGHTERHOUSES"

Chicago Packer Says: "NOTHING TO ARBITRATE"

(Continued on Second Page.)