Over-Sea Flyer in First Tests Today

By LIEUT. JOHN C. PORTE, R. N.

At the suggestion of Rodman Wanamaker, the trans-Atlantic flyer that his support made possible will be named "The America." I look for an omen of good fortune in the name. May it be another link between the two countries, since the American, American, is to be driven by a British naval man, Irish born.

The boat now stands complete. Today it will be launched and christened. Miss Masion or Miss Champion of Hammondsport, N. Y., will act as sponsor for the craft. The young lady selected will break a bottle of native champagne over the bows and send the boat into the water of Lake Keuka, at Hammondsport, with the good wishes of all who have been concerned in the building since last February.

HOPE TO MAKE TRIAL FLIGHT TODAY.
