Quebec’s Magnificent Pageant

Grand Panoramic Orine, Most Splinterful Feature of Tercentenary Celebration Commemorating the Founding of Canada’s Famous Old City.

Walter Graham, Secretary.

The Quebec magnificient Pageant of which the following article is an account, is the result of the long and persevering efforts of the Quebec City authorities, who have followed a plan of action which is unique in the history of the French-speaking world. The Pageant is the outgrowth of a tercentenary celebration, and will be held in the city of Quebec, on the Plains of Abraham, on the afternoon of July 15th, 1908, the three hundredth anniversary of the capture of the city by the French, under the command of Montcalm.

The Pageant will consist of a series of tableaux, each of which will represent a different stage in the history of the city. The tableaux will be illuminated by electric lights and will be accompanied by music and speeches. The Pageant will be divided into several parts, each of which will be presented at a different time.

The Pageant will begin with a procession of warships, followed by the arrival of the French forces under the command of Montcalm. The pageant will then proceed to the Plains of Abraham, where the battle is said to have taken place.

The Pageant will also feature a series of tableaux depicting the history of the city, including the construction of the city walls, the building of the Chateau Frontenac, and the capture of the city by the British under the command of Wolfe.

The Pageant will conclude with a display of fireworks, followed by a grand finale, which will include a flight of the Canadas, the national emblem of the French.

The Pageant is expected to attract a large crowd, and will be a major event in the history of Quebec.

Natural Digestion

Kodol contains all digestive elements. It does more than the stomach does. It accomplishes, in addition, what the bowels do, what the saliva does, towards digestion. No other digester does that.

The neck is often treated with inflammation and swelling, which is known as "lumpy neck." This is caused by a variety of causes, and it is necessary to treat it promptly in order to prevent further complications. The treatment usually involves the use of hot packs, followed by massage and then by the application of cold packs.

In addition to the treatment of neck problems, Kodol can be used to treat other digestive problems. It is effective in treating ulcers, constipation, and other digestive disorders. It is also useful in treating respiratory problems, such as coughs and colds.

Kodol is available in a variety of forms, including capsules, tablets, and liquids. It can be purchased at most pharmacies and health stores.
