Stereoscope and Views Offered.

The National Tribune has made arrangement with a large manufacturer of stereoscopes for such a very large supply that we are unable to sell them at the lowest price—a price that could not be secured by any party who would use only a limited number of the stereoscopes. The price is so low that we are enabled to offer to our readers a very handsome and serviceable stereoscope, together with The National Tribune for one year, at $1.50.

If anyone is dissatisfied with his stereoscope he may return it to us, postage paid, and we will return it to him 75 cents.

Description of the Stereoscope.

The stereoscope is satin finish, aluminum-hued, velvet edge, folding handle, oak-stained wood, perfect lenses of large size, purest glass, hand-fitted any face. The lens holder, the handle, the partition, the shaft, and the stereoscope itself are made of good quality oak-stained wood, with a rub-down finish, giving it a beautiful luster not easily scratched or marred, as is the case with a varnished scope. Our stereoscope in a rich and beautiful instrument. The rubber finish, oak-stained wood, the velvet edge aluminum horse makes an effective and attractive instrument. The handle, fittings and the spring on the stereoscope hold the best quality of spring horse. The stereoscope is constructed on scientific principles, and hence will not strain or tire the eyes as do many inferior and cheap instruments.

Price express charges prepaid, 75 cents. The National Tribune one year and the Stereoscope, both postpaid, $2.50.

A New Series of Stereoscopic Views.

Eleven sets of stereoscopic views entirely new, up to date and old copies. Every view copyrighted and never before published. This series of stereoscopic views is put on the market, claiming the recognition of all users of stereoscopes, as a new subject never before published.

The Life of Christ.

The Home Pet.

The Destruction of San Francisco.

Odd Sights and Odd People.

Women of the Old World.

A New Series of Comics.