COLBY'S GOING "CALLING" ON SOUTH AMERICA

GRANDE REPORTS RAPID GROWTH

WASHINGTON—As the representatives of President Wilson, Secretary of State Bryan, Colby (right) will go calling in the next few weeks. He will pay official visits to Brazil and Uruguay (shown on the map of South America, left), requiring an official call by President Plarum of Uruguay to the United States in 1914, and President Passos of Brazil, both of whom he will visit. Colby will be in commission specifically to Parana, Argentina, where he will make his calls with the U. S. battleship Florida, shown above.
