Bags for the Shopping Tour

Bags and purses seem to be the battle-scarred in every city, but it has been ascertained that they carry about all the necessities for the most essential attire, as well as being ornamental. Small ones are carried in the lining of the fur or leather case, and the larger ones are carried in the hand or on the arm. A variety of shapes is shown in the group of bags presented here, each with its particular purpose and function. The smaller ones are used for carrying cosmetics, gloves, or small articles, while the larger ones are used for holding coats, hats, or other articles. They are all made of the finest materials, and the handles are of the most durable kind.

PREDICTS HEIGHT OF TIDES

It is predicted that the height of the tides will be affected by the high pressure system over the region. The tides will be at their highest level when the pressure is highest, and at their lowest level when the pressure is lowest. The predictions are based on scientific data and are published by the National Weather Service. In the next few days, the tides will reach their peak, and the rainfall will increase. It is advisable to take precautions to prevent flooding and to secure proper drainage. The predictions will be updated as the situation changes.

ITALIANS PRESSING ON TO TRIESTE

Italians are pressing on to Trieste, the capital of the Adriatic, which is the Italian province in the valley of the Isonzo River. The Italian army, under the command of General Armando Diaz, has crossed the boundary of the Austrian Empire and is advancing on the Austrian front. The Italian army is well-equipped and well-trained, and it is expected to make rapid progress. The Austrians are put on the defensive, and they are trying to hold on to their positions with all the resources at their disposal. The situation is critical, and the outcome is uncertain.

BOUNTERS START CAMPAIGN

A group of new bounties or house robbers has been created in order to keep the city safe from their activities. The bounties are set at a high amount, and the police are trying to catch them as quickly as possible. The bounties are designed to discourage the robbers from committing crimes, and the police are using various tactics to catch them. The police are also working closely with the community to prevent further crimes from taking place. The bounties are a new approach to curb the activities of house robbers, and it is hoped that they will be successful.
