Battle Ship Florida Gets Silver Service That is Worth $10,000

A committee of the W. C. T. U. recently presented a silver service to the Florida, a new battleship of the United States Navy. This service weighs over 800 pounds and is valued at $10,000. The service consists of 30 pieces, including a large punch bowl, platters, trays, and serving dishes. The presentation was made during a dinner given in honor of the Florida's commander, Captain J. W. Turner. The dinner was held at the Hotel Florida in New York City. The service was designed by a well-known silversmith and is considered to be one of the finest examples of American craftsmanship. It is expected to be used for formal dinners and state occasions.

In addition to the silver service, the W. C. T. U. presented a large flag to the Florida. The flag is made of silk and is embroidered with the symbols of the W. C. T. U. It is expected to be flown on the ship's mast in recognition of the organization's support of the cause.
