ATTACK WAS TO FULFILL GANG'S DEATH SENTENCE

Doom of Trigger, Pronounced Earlier in Day, After Two Gun Battles and Dynamiting.

An attempt to "get" Chick Trigger, the East Side gang leader, and Wild Bill in its hazardous intent, was made late this afternoon, by a team of Bowery gangsters in their native haunts, who wheeled slowly up the Bowery until they get in front of Chrissy Scott's saloon at No. 245 Bowery, and opened fire on Trigger and a friend.

The two men were shot out of the saloon and hked behind the bar. None of the shots took fatal effect, although it was reported later that Pag and had been shot in the foot. Before the police arrived Pag disappeared.

As the reserves came up the Bowery the taxikcis dashed away up the Bowery and hid into Fren street, firing a parting volley at the policemen as they left.

A further stop at No. 243 Bowery was riddled with shot, several wounded men. A crowd in the shop and the patrons in the club fired a paint in the rear of the building.
