ART LEAGUE OPENS SEASON
WITH HUNDREDS PRESENT AT
LECTURE ON OLD DEERFIELD

Outlook For Progressive Organization is Brighter Than Ever—Noted Artist Will Conduct Classes—Musical Numbers Introduced.

The Bristol Art league opened its new season on Monday evening, with full attendance, in the music room of the Odd Fellows building, corner of School and High streets, under the direction of Dr. J. W. R. Gordon, who was assisted by Mrs. F. E. Graham, director of the art school.

The art room, which has been completely redecorated, is a delight, with scores of fine paintings on view, and a large number of models.

The artist of the evening was Mr. S. T. C. Hendrick, who gave a lecture on "The Art of the Pastoral Scene," and showed a number of illustrations.

The programme was a success, and the art league has a bright future.

School Congestion
Grows Worse, Steps Planned for Relief

The public schools of this city are now overcrowded to an extent which is causing grave concern to the authorities.

The school committee has therefore decided to take steps to alleviate the situation, and has called a meeting of the school principals to discuss the matter.

The meeting was held last evening, and a number of suggestions were made for the relief of the congestion.

The committee is now working on a plan to build a new school, and will report its findings to the school committee at the next meeting.

ADMINISTRATION WOULD INCREASE CORPS OF CADETS

Bill Designates Norwalk Youth as His Candidate For Cadets

Washington, Oct. 29—The bill which would create a new corps of cadets and establish a new military academy was introduced in the Senate today by Senator John B. Hammond, Democrat of Connecticut.

The bill provides for the establishment of a new military academy, to be located in the state of Connecticut, and for the creation of a new corps of cadets.

The bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator Hammond, who has been a leader in the movement for the establishment of a new military academy.

The bill was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor.

RICH MEN'S SOULS MAY BE SAVED AT RAILWAY STATION

Golden Greenwich to Be Reformed by Preaching

Greenwich, Conn., Oct. 28—Golden Greenwich was rescued from sin last evening, when a preachment was given at the railway station.

The preachment was given by the Reverend Dr. John Hendrick, who is a well-known preacher in the area.

Dr. Hendrick spoke on the subject of the salvation of the rich man's soul, and his words were received with great enthusiasm.

The preachment was a success, and the people of Greenwich were greatly benefited by it.

COLUMBIA RECORDS
FOR NOVEMBER
ON SALE TOMORROW AT WISSNER'S

The list of new records for November contains some seventy odd record selections including operatic Arias by Ferraro-Fonfante; Solos by Julia Clauberg, Alice Nielsen, Oscar Seagle, Frank Pullock, Corinne-Rider-Kelley and others; Cello selections by Fabel Cunale; Quartettes, Duets, Orchestral and Band Selections, in comprehensive array. Seldom has the Columbia organization offered such an attractive list for any given month.

SIX NEW NOVEMBER DANCE SELECTIONS
LET US PLAY THEM OVER FOR YOU—NO OBLIGATION.

WISSNER PIANO WAREROOMS
Columbia and Victor Talking Machines.

23 MAIN STREET.
PHONE 3500.