ROUND-UP OF GUNMEN CONTINUED

Highwaymen Stall Pedestrians, Threaten Them as He Tallys Nothing

Police Tuesday captured their number two, George A. Hester, 24, and broke into the garage of Mrs. Albert McCubbin in the city, where the gang had been carousing when they found nothing worth taking.

The two fleeing now wanted were James H. Watson, 28, and Louis O. Jernigan, 30. McCubbin, who was returning from work at the time, saw the men approaching and hid in the garage. He then left and did not return until the police had left.

CHICAGO CHIEF OPENS CLEANUP

In Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. N. Nier repatriated to Paris Tuesday night to accept the American war trophy known as the Croix de la Legion d'Honneur. The order is presented to distinguished persons who have rendered outstanding service in the various services of the United States.
