President Taft and Secretary Meyer on Their Inspection Visit to Super-Dreadnought Arkansas.

Just a few questions before clearing the campaign:
shall we, at the humblest of this country's prosperity, begin every period in consideration of every government and trade for which has always prevailed devastation?

The last call to arms

President Taft and Secretary Miller on Their Inspection Visit to Super-Dreadnought Arkansas.

COSTITUTIONAL

AMENDMENTS.

A great deal of opposition has developed to the enumeration of constitutional amendments more especially the fourteenth and the right of the accused.

THE LOGAN REPUBLICAN.

LOGAN, Cache Co., Utah, Tuesday November 11, 1913

TENTH YEAR

CONSTITUTIONAL

AMENDMENTS.

The proof of the value of Revolution is the manifest return that they give to the people.
