Ordinance Requiring Water Connections

ALL CONNECTIONS MUST BE MADE BEFORE STREETS ARE PAVED

THE ORDINANCE

Also Requires Changing Pressure Connections to Meet New Standards.

The text of the ordinance to go into effect immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved is as follows: "This ordinance is hereby adopted and declared in force and effect, and shall be enforced immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter I. That after the ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective, all water main connections in the streets which have not been made shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter II. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter III. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter IV. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter V. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter VI. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter VII. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter VIII. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter IX. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter X. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XI. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XII. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XIII. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XIV. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XV. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XVI. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XVII. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XVIII. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XIX. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XX. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XXI. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XXII. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XXIII. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XXIV. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XXV. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XXVI. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XXVII. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XXVIII. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XXIX. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.

Chapter XXX. That the Ordinance of the City of Anderson, South Carolina, as amended, shall become effective immediately and the connections to be made before streets are paved shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance which shall become effective immediately.