FRANK P. WALSH BECOMES AN EDITOR

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 1 — Frank P. Walsh, credited with having launched the careers of more than 100 people, has entered the field of journalistic production. Walsh, who is well known for his activities as chairman of the National Board of Review of Motion Pictures, has announced that he is now a publisher and editor of a new magazine, "The Movie Spectator." The magazine will be devoted to the production of pictures and will include reviews, articles, and features on the film industry.

NEW CONSTITUTION PROCLAIMED

The new constitution of the Republic of Mexico has been proclaimed. It provides for a president, a congress, and a supreme court. The president is to be elected by the people for a term of six years, and the congress is to be composed of two houses. The supreme court is to consist of nine justices, appointed by the president with the advice and consent of the congress.

GIRLS NEARLY DROWN

Three girls narrowly escaped a serious accident when their boat overturned in the water. The girls, who were swimming in the lake, were thrown into the air by the impact of the boat, and one of them was nearly drowned. She was rescued by her companions and taken to a hospital, where she is recovering.

STEAL HYMNS BOOKS

Former member W. W. Bancroft gave an interesting talk last week at the annual meeting of the First Congregational church, where he said that the hymn books in the church had been stolen. He said that the hymn books were valued at $100.

SUNDAY IS FRIDAY

In the city of New York, the city council has declared Sunday to be the official "Friday." This is to be observed in all public places, and no alcoholic beverages will be sold on that day.

FOUNDED DEAD IN WRECK

In Detroit, a successful lawyer was killed in a train wreck. He was on his way to a meeting, and his death was a great loss to the city.

2 STEAMERS SEIZED

Halifax, N.S.—The British steamers "Humber" and "Wharton" were seized by the British government yesterday. They were seized for their participation in the recent conflict with the United States.

Life Story of the Next First Lady of the Land

White House Caporal. W. D. Crockett, the president's special assistant, has brought about the meeting of the president and Mrs. Taft.

CHAPTER V

The president was visited by Mrs. Taft, who came to see him about the matter of the new White House. The president is said to have been delighted with her visit, and he has promised to give her a new home in the White House.

Hi.

Fay.}

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 16 — The president has stated that he will not sign the "new White House" bill. He said that he would not sign the bill because it is not in the best interests of the country.

Electricity to Make Our Latest Battleship Mightiest in World

In the presence of a great crowd the latest of the all-boiler engine battleship California was launched with impressive ceremonies at the Brooklyn Navy Yard. The ship is named after the state of California, and it is said to be the mightiest battleship in the world.

Musical Comedy Troupe Has Clever Offering This Week At Pantages

Renowned Broadway hero, a musical comedy headliner on today's new Pantages bill. Great new comedy troupe giving a clever offering on this week's bill at the Pantages. They are called "The California Girls." They are a group of 10 young people, including the famous "California Girls." They have been taken up as a real sensation in Los Angeles.

BUSY HALLOWE'EN

The fires and the trees are alight with the spirit of the Hallowe'en holiday. The children are having a great time, and the adults are enjoying the festivities.

"DON'T PITY ME" SAYS J. W. BRYAN

Charlotte, N.C., Nov. 1 — James W. Bryan, a former mayor of this city, has given an interesting talk about the Hallowe'en holiday. He said that he does not pity the children who are having a good time on this day.

U. S. TO SUE FOR MONEY ADVANCED

The U.S. government has decided to sue for the money advanced to the Confederate States by the Confederate States. The government is said to have advanced $1,000,000 to the Confederate States.