FEW SAW OUR LATEST DREADNAUGHT LAUNCHED.

In the first reading of the vagrancy ordinance, the members had the option to vote for the passage of the bill, and all but one of the members voted in favor of the ordinance.

STATE FORESTER IS EXPECTED HERE TONIGHT

The state forester is expected to arrive in Bemidji tonight, and will meet with officials of the local forestry service to discuss forest management plans.

REX THEATER CLOSES DURING WARM WEATHER

The Rex Theater in Bemidji has decided to close during the warm weather months, and will reopen in the fall. The decision was made after a review of attendance figures and feedback from customers.

NEGRO CATHOLIC PRIEST VISITING IN BEMIDJI

Father Theodore of St. Philip's Catholic Church in Detroit will visit Bemidji for a week to preach and teach about the Catholic faith. The visit is part of the parish's ongoing mission to bring the message of Jesus to the native people.

500000 MILES IN 10 YEARS IN MINNESOTA

The state's highway department has announced that it plans to construct a network of 50,000 miles of roads throughout Minnesota, connecting cities and towns across the state.

100 YOUNG PHEASANTS COMING FOR REFUGE

To accommodate the growing population of pheasants in Minnesota, the state government has designated 100 acres of land as a refuge for young pheasants.

RAWHAWANS WANT TO BATTLE FOR FRANCE

The Rawhawans, a tribe of native people, have declared their intention to fight for France in the war, and have formed a regiment to support the allied troops.

DITTY IS COMMENDED

At the annual meeting of the Moose Lodge, Ditto was commended for his dedication and hard work in promoting the organization's goals.

Two justices of the peace in the Bemidji area have been summoned before the board of review to answer to charges of misconduct.

Toy stores have been reported to be looting from the city hall, and police have been ordered to investigate.

A new steamship has been launched in the Mississippi River, named the "Bismarck," as a symbol of the nation's strength and progress.

The Chippewa Indians are sending seven members of their council to Washington, D.C., to discuss matters of mutual concern with the federal government.

The Bemidji-Fifth ward bus line is being extended to the outskirts of the city, providing easier access to the city center for residents.

WAGES NOT INCREASED

The workers of the Bemidji area have been told that their wages will not be increased, despite the high cost of living.

ROAST BEEF DINNER AT C. T. TOMORROW

A roast beef dinner is being planned for next week, with all proceeds going to the local charity organization.

BIGGEST CROP IN HISTORY OF THE NATION IS FORECAST

The United States is expected to produce the largest crop of any year, with predictions of over 200 million bushels of corn.

THE CHAMPS AGREE ON MILLION DOLLAR CHAMPIONSHIP

The boxing champions have agreed on a million-dollar championship fight, setting the stage for an epic battle.

The board of review has made the first reading of the vagrancy ordinance, and members are expected to vote on it at the next meeting.