Photo taken from the deck showing where a kamikaze hit the USS Columbia after firing 80 guns and straddling hits. The resulting fireball engulfed the forward signal bridge, causing a fire spreading to the forward magazines. The explosion left 90 killed and 114 wounded, while the ship was out of action for over a year and a half.