THE UNITED STATES HONORS ITS SAILOR HERO BY THE GRANDEST NAVAL DISPLAY EVER WITNESSED IN AMERICAN WATERS

MILLIONS OF PEOPLE SEE THE GREAT PARADE OF WARSHIPS

An Extravagant Maritime Pageant of White Painted Sea Fighters and Peaceful Craft.

Shores For Miles Black With Multitudes Fretted to Pay Homage to Admiral Dewey.

New York, Sept. 3:--The world paraded from the moorage piers of the warships was an immense maritime pageant, a scene never witnessed by any human eye. Indeed, multiplies of the fleet were a splendid sight compared with the great ones that had been seen.

The vast gathering of watercraft was a scene never witnessed by any human eye. Indeed, the spectacle was one of magnificence and splendor. The ships were arrayed in order, the smaller vessels at the rear, and the larger ones at the front. The crowd was immense, with multitudes of spectators on the shore watching the spectacle with wonder and admiration.

The Great White Squadron.

The Great White Squadron consisted of the following warships:

1. The flagship, the Olympia, under the command of Admiral Dewey.
2. The Philadelphia, under the command of Captain Schley.
3. The Brooklyn, under the command of Captain Bland.
4. The Boston, under the command of Captain Macomb.
5. The Detroit, under the command of Captain Dingley.
6. The Brooklyn, under the command of Captain Preble.
7. The Savannah, under the command of Captain Noyes.
8. The Monticello, under the command of Captain Goldsborough.
9. The Buffalo, under the command of Captain Reynolds.
10. The New York, under the command of Captain Schley.

The scene was one of magnificence and splendor. The ships were arrayed in order, the smaller vessels at the rear, and the larger ones at the front. The crowd was immense, with multitudes of spectators on the shore watching the spectacle with wonder and admiration.

The Parade as Seen From Flagship Of The Admiral

Rome Never Paid a More Glorious Tribute to One of Its Conquerors.

New York, Sept. 10.--The magnificent parade of warships that paid homage to Admiral Dewey has been a splendid sight. The ships were arrayed in order, the smaller vessels at the rear, and the larger ones at the front. The crowd was immense, with multitudes of spectators on the shore watching the spectacle with wonder and admiration.

The scene was one of magnificence and splendor. The ships were arrayed in order, the smaller vessels at the rear, and the larger ones at the front. The crowd was immense, with multitudes of spectators on the shore watching the spectacle with wonder and admiration.

ROYAL WELCOME TO IDAHO BOYS

Pocatello Greets Her Heroes Home From The War.

ENTHUSIASM WAS UP TO HIGHEST PITCH

In Review With Banners By Beautiful Young Ladys.

WAR IN THE TRANSVAAL IS NOW A CERTAINTY

Boer Commanders Ordered To Take The Field And Men Are Responding Readyly To Call.

President Kruger Declares That Martial Law Will Be Proclaimed Today Or Monday.

The Daily Mail publishes the following dispatch from Charlestown:

Patriotism is strong and the people have armed in large numbers.

1. The flagship, the Olympia, under the command of Admiral Dewey.
2. The Philadelphia, under the command of Captain Schley.
3. The Brooklyn, under the command of Captain Bland.
4. The Boston, under the command of Captain Macomb.
5. The Detroit, under the command of Captain Dingley.
6. The Savannah, under the command of Captain Noyes.
7. The Monticello, under the command of Captain Goldsborough.
8. The Buffalo, under the command of Captain Reynolds.
9. The New York, under the command of Captain Schley.

The scene was one of magnificence and splendor. The ships were arrayed in order, the smaller vessels at the rear, and the larger ones at the front. The crowd was immense, with multitudes of spectators on the shore watching the spectacle with wonder and admiration.