V. Longevity in the Dizzy Waltz.

By Prof. Hinman

The dizzy waltz, or the so-called waltz, is the most popular dance of the day. It is a dance that is characterized by its rhythm, which is a simple, regular, and easy to follow beat. The dance is performed by a pair of dancers, one of whom is the leader and the other is the follower. The leader dance is performed by the leader, who leads the follower in a series of steps, each of which is marked by a change in direction or movement. The follower dance is performed by the follower, who follows the leader in a series of steps, each of which is marked by a change in direction or movement.
