War is to be Declared.

The President will recommend to Congress that a state of war exists.

The blockade is maintained.

The call is now out.

The President asks for 125,000 volunteers.

The fleet is now in full swing.

The United States Navy as it is today.

(From the New York Herald)