THE American Society of Naval Sponsors, one of the most exclusive women's organizations of the United States, will be formed on a meeting here this week of its members and American women and men and the leading newspapers and magazines on the press of Paris's government. The meeting will be held to order in Continental Hall at noon Wednesday, and will continue two days.

Enthusiasm toward the establishment has been shown by the right Washington women who have worked assiduously for the organization of the society, officials of the army, as well as the navy, and government officials, who have at all times taken great interest in the project. It is probable that the sponsors will be held on the North Carolina, a battleship which they will be entertained in the Naval Yard. The defect of the navy's admirals at the army's general reception, at the White House Tuesday evening, when President Roosevelt will make a special address to the new society.

Members All Presidents

The members of the organization include daughters of prominent statesmen, including members of the House of Representatives, various congressmen, as well as the wives of admiral, and officers of the army and navy. This is the first that the membership will be open to all, and women and men will be admitted as members of the society. The meeting is the result of the efforts of the organization to attract national interest and support.

English Following Example

The British society is the first of its kind in the country, and its formation is the result of the efforts of the American navy to attract national interest and support. The society will be held on the North Carolina, a battleship which they will be entertained in the Naval Yard. The defect of the navy's admirals at the army's general reception, at the White House Tuesday evening, when President Roosevelt will make a special address to the new society.