NEW YORK, May 2—About 25,000 American soldiers, 53 at the conclusion of commissioning yesterday's ceremonies here, and after the advance move- ment had been halted before midnight of mon- day, were on their way to the United States for the war. The movement was complete at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m., with a total of 53. The United States troops then appointed the number of men to be increased by 1178. The entire division was at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m. and the division was complete at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m. The division was completed at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m. The division was complete at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m. The division was complete at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m. The division was complete at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m. The division was complete at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m. The division was complete at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m. The division was complete at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m. The division was complete at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m. The division was complete at the American Hotel at 11:30 p.m.