Admiral Schley Uses Per-ru-na

Peruna Drug Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Gentlemen:—"I can cheerfully state that Mrs. Schley has taken Peruna and I believe with good effect." W. S. SCHLEY.

Admiral Schley, in His Home.

Battle of Santiago, Where Admiral Schley Made History.

ONE of the greatest naval battles in the world was the fight for Santiago. Never since the Mexican War has there been a battle so notable as that fought by Admiral Schley, took a leading part. It was a great naval battle. Without a moment's warning, it began. Quick decision, undaunted courage, excellent discipline, resolute self-confidence—these combined in Admiral Schley to produce that dash and daring so characteristic of the American soldier.

A man must think quickly in these days. There is no time for slow action. New enterprises arise in an hour. Old ones pass away in a moment. A multitude of great themes clamor for notice. A man must take sides for or against, by intuition, rather than by logical deduction.

One day this fighting admiral, Schley, happened to be in a company with other men who were talking on various topics of popular interest. The subject of Peruna was raised,—its popularity as a catarrh remedy, its national importance, its extensive use during the war. One said his opinion. Without a moment's hesitation, Admiral Schley said: 'I can cheerfully say that Mrs. Schley has taken Peruna and I believe with good effect.'

The Battle of Santiago, the thought was sprung up, without any warning, and he disposed of it with the same vim and decision as he did with the Spanish fleet led by the ill-fated Weyler.

His words concerning Peruna have gone out into the world to be repeated by a thousand tongues, because he has said them. Like the news of his victory over Cervera, his words concerning PERUNA CARRIED WEIGHT.

Peruna caught up multitudes and passed from mouth to mouth, across oceans and continents.

Except for an inborn manly independence, in a country of free speech, these words never would have been uttered by an officer in such a notable position as that of Admiral Schley.

Except for a world-wide notoriety and popularity, such as Peruna enjoys, no remedy could ever have received such outspoken public endorsement by such a man.

"Many extensively advertised remedies are failures when put to the test. Iron's Lightning Hair Tonic is all an exception. Confidence in it is never misplaced—results never follow its use. It is surely the greatest emergency remedy now obtainable. For cuts, burns, sprains, ache and pains I know no equal." Geo. E. Peddicord, Davenport, Mo.
