VERA CRUZ DEAD HERE ON WARSHIP

Seventeen Bodies of Seamen and Marines Arrive on the Montana.

NATIONAL TRIBUTE TO DAY

President Wilson to Speak at Memorial Services in Navy Yard After Parade.

March Begins at Battery

Chair of 500 Children to Sing at City Hall—Troops and Police as Guard of Honor.

Today's Ceremonies

5:45 A.M.—Observance of the seventy-first anniversary of the Montana, which will be placed on the

8:30 A.M.—The landing at Pier A of Secretary Daniels and staff from Washington, D.C., and the arrival of the food from the Montana, which will be served at the 9:00 A.M.—Ceremony at Battery, where 500 children will sing, "The Star-Spangled Banner," and Mayor Mitchell will speak, and the navy's colors will be raised.

10:45 A.M.—Ceremony at the Battery, with the presentation of the swords to the Montana.

11:15 A.M.—Memorial service by the Battery Commanders, with the presentation of the swords to the Montana.

11:45 A.M.—Both the Montana and the Marine Barracks in the parade.

Bodies of seventeen seamen and marines who were killed in the battles of Vera Cruz and the Sutro Expedition, and who are on the Montana, were brought to New York City.

The Montana, which arrived at the Battery yesterday, carried the bodies of the seventeen men who were killed in the battles of Vera Cruz and the Sutro Expedition. The bodies were placed in a temporary mortuary on the Battery, and the funerals were held at the Battery yesterday morning.

The bodies of the seventeen men were brought to New York on the Montana, which arrived at the Battery yesterday. The funerals were held at the Battery yesterday morning.