PERSONNEL OF THE SQUADRONS.

Los Angeles Herald Sunday Morning, May 8, 1898.

The personnel of the United States Navy has been placed in the hands of the Los Angeles Herald for the purpose of being published in this newspaper. The Herald has always made it a point to give the best information about the navy, and the personnel of the squadrons is a matter of great importance to the public. The Herald is glad to have the opportunity to publish this information, and it is confident that the readers will find it interesting and useful.

The personnel of the squadrons includes the officers and men who are serving in the navy. The officers are the ones who are responsible for the management of the ships and the crew. The men are the ones who are responsible for the operation of the ships and the crew. The personnel of the squadrons is a matter of great importance to the public, and the Herald is glad to have the opportunity to publish this information.