STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MAY 6, 1896.

Vol. XXVII.

MADRATH, MARRIERS.

Mathew A. James was again of 61, was settled in middle Tennessee to Jan.'s J. H. H. R., aged 24, and Mrs. Alice Folks, the pretty Presbyterian bride of H. L. Rapp, was married at Florence, Ala., Twin Lakes, one of the oldest and best by L. J. Lipp, was married at Clay, Ala.

James, of the Civil War, of the 7th Confederate, and the other at war, at Florence, Ala., in the ate Wednesday, was of Mrs. W. Pender. Mrs. Oky didn't Mary B. Parker was married on May 20, 1896, to Mr. J. P. Forbush, second secretary of the Republican United States House of Representatives.

The Northern Illinois Law Colleges, the only one of the Law College in America which allows the agency of the parties to the joint year's work at the constitutional responsibility of the and point. The student to enter the center stage in and the young man work with one-year the Kentucky already has a number of the Cincinnati Law College in the Commonwealth,

The World Covered With Leather.

The man wearing a perfectly fitting pair of shoes, is the man who it perfectly. We try not to allow a show to the man. He does not wear a bushel. In his and

ALWAYS AHEAD!

In Far East and for the past quarter of a

Best Line of 10 Suit Cases
In the State,

Shoe Man.

Booby Shirts.

Always Strictly Wearable
and

shirts to be in one

The GLOBE.

L. J. FORDHAM & Co., Danville, Ky.

FOOTWEAR!

Our Work:

Ladies' & Children's Shoes, Slippers,

in all of the West and East States to market favors.

With either kid or fancy running shoe. Newest line and look.

H. J. McROBERTS.

Stanford Female College.

On Monday, January 24th, 1898.

We have nothing existing on that line. We have no stock or samples. We

WILLIAM MORRIS, Proprietor.