NAVY SPONSORS ARE ORGANIZATION OF PATRIOTIC WOMEN

Society Holds Meeting
To Carry on Traditions

Service in Washington Cathedral Launches Another Year in Story of Devotion to Welfare of Nation as Government Begins.

WASHINGTON

Society, president of the 4-year-old Organization of Patriotic Women, associated with the National Navy, headed its annual meeting Tuesday afternoon. The occasion was marked by the dedication of a service of thanksgiving and dialogue of praise at Washington Cathedral, followed by a dinner at the Washington Hotel.

Mrs. Eisenhower, who is also the president of the National War Mothers, and who has been active in the work of the Organization of Patriotic Women, said that the meetings of the organization have been an inspiration and a source of strength for her in her work for the Navy.

The meeting of the organization was conducted by Mrs. Eisenhower, who spoke on "The Navy and the Woman," and was followed by a group of short speeches on "The Navy and the Woman.

Among those who addressed the meeting were Mrs. Mary H. Tunbridge, who discussed "The Navy and the Woman," and Mrs. J. H. Tunbridge, who spoke on "The Navy and the Woman.

The meeting was attended by a large number of women, and was followed by a group of short speeches on "The Navy and the Woman."
