

HEARING NURSERY PROTESTS

Part of the large crowd of mothers who pleaded for the continuation of nursery schools before the Detroit Board of Education listening, with members of the board, to one of the protests. The board promised its help.

A WILLOW RUN LESSEE?

Henry J. Kaiser Jr., son of the famous wartime ship-builder, arriving in Detroit to open negotiations for "leasing the Willow Run plant to make automobiles." His father will produce a new low-priced car in Detroit.

Removing Their Dead

PICTORIAL
REVIEW
DETROIT TIMES
AUG. 1945

Seamen aboard the cruiser USS Birmingham leaning far down into a gaping hole torn in the deck by a Jap suicide plane to lift out the body of a shipmate killed in the crash May 14, 1945. Forty-five men were killed, 83 were wounded and six are missing in the disaster.

Victory Celebration Aboard a Navy 'Baby' Flat-Top

Navy men aboard the carrier USS Hoggatt Bay performing a snake dance in celebration of our victory over Japan.

OCO-D Girls Decorating the General's Car

Eleanor Grant, 6067 Appoline, Dearborn, a chauffeur for the Office of Chief Ordnance, Detroit, pasting a third-birthday windshield sticker on Gen. Boatwright's car. Sept. 1 is to be OCO-D Day in Detroit.

A GOING-AWAY PRESENT

Elinor Kloor, a member of the Whittier staff, presenting Herbert C. Blunck with a bouquet of glads at a farewell party for the former Detroit Statler manager at the Whittier yesterday. Blunck, retiring head of the Detroit Hotelmen's Association, is leaving to become manager of the Hotel Statler in Washington, D. C.