WIDER PROBLEM
Making Settlement In Palestine
MR. BEVIN'S VIEW

PARLIAMENT
In the House of Commons.
Mr. Bevin: The Prime Minister has told us that the Jews will not be given a large piece of land in Palestine but that they will be given a national territory there. If that is so, then this is the beginning of a national settlement and it is
the beginning of a great national settlement.

BEVIN'S VIEW
Mr. Bevin: The Prime Minister has said that the Jews will not be given a large piece of land in Palestine but that they will be given a national territory there. If that is so, then this is the beginning of a national settlement and it is
the beginning of a great national settlement.

ATOMIC BOMBS
STEPS FOR CONTROL
AGREEMENT REACHED
Belsen Trial.
NO WASTE OF TIME
In the House of Commons.
Mr. Bevin: The Prime Minister has told us that the Jews will not be given a large piece of land in Palestine but that they will be given a national territory there. If that is so, then this is the beginning of a national settlement and it is
the beginning of a great national settlement.