WILL FIGHT TO FINISH

GOVERNOR COOLIDGE HEADS STATE FORCES IN BOSTON TROUBLE.

WILL TEST THE UNIONS

MACHINE GUNS ARE MOUNTED AT POLICE HEADQUARTERS BY TROOPS.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Boston, Sept. 12.—The Sixth and seventh deaths growing out of strike disturbances occurred when Richard D. Reemts, a striking policeman who was shot, succumbed to his wounds and Robert Lallie, who was shot, died at a hospital.

With Governor Coolidge as commander-in-chief of the state's forces in complete charge of the situation, the city took on a warlike appearance. Six machine guns were mounted at police headquarters and troops, wearing "tin hats," by order by Adjutant General Stevens patrolled the streets.

Meanwhile shopkeepers, supplementing police and military protection by means of their own, barricaded the windows of their places of business to withstand a siege. Boards were nailed in front of the glass to protect it from the assault of bands of hoodlums who have been roaming the streets.

A fight to the finish between the constituted authorities of state and city and the labor unions was indicated by developments in the policemen's strike. While Governor Coolidge was exercising his authority as commander-in-chief of the state forces to take complete command of the measures for protection of the city, Mayor Peters was making it plain to labor leaders who visited city hall that the policemen's union would not be recognized.

The labor men were firm in their insistence that the police be permitted to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor, and offered to guarantee that the police never would be called out on a sympathetic strike.

The possibility of a strike of carmen, telephone and electrical workers and industrial employes was serious. What gave the authorities the greatest cause for anxiety, however, was the danger that the firemen might join in the movement.

It was recognized that this would place the city in the gravest peril. A ray of hope was seen in the declaration of the president of the Firemen's union that he would not take the responsibility for a strike unless authorized by the American Federation of Labor.

Miners Murdered at Tomboy.

Telluride, Colo.—Four miners, Gus Danielson, 30; Eric Smith, 25; Fred Sand, 20, and Celeste Mattive, 40, were shot to death by two masked men at the Montana workings of the Tomboy mine here. Joe Koehner, another miner, was wounded in the knee as the murderers fled from the mine and escaped. Officials believe the murders may have resulted from a feud between the murderers and the dead men.

Kills Father and Hired Man.

Boulder.—Ole Flinde killed a dog his son Oran brought home to the ranch twelve miles northeast of Boulder. Oran shot and killed his father and the hired man, William Fulmer, 43. The 20-year-old boy was taken to Boulder by the sheriff. "No one has a right to kill a dog," he told the sheriff. "I like dogs, don't you?" "Fulmer and dad threatened to run me off the place," he said.

Aviator Falls to Death.

Dunkirk, N. Y.—Harold M. Brunner of Erie, Pa., an aviator, was killed while giving an exhibition flight at Chautauque county fair. A wing of his airplane appeared to collapse when he was 400 feet in the air. Ten thousand persons saw the accident.

Pershing Will Get Sword.

Washington.—The House passed a special resolution setting 2 p. m., Sept. 18, as the time for the joint session of Congress to receive General Pershing. A sword of honor will be presented.

He Was Slow.

He fell! True, it is a moment of overwhelming temptation—her upturned face, with rosy lips pursed. But still, as he crept sorrowfully away, he told himself that he had been a cad to steal that kiss. But even now he could see the sudden tears in her eyes.

His broken apology still rang in the little room where the girl lay sobbing on the couch.

"It's awful!" she sobbed. "To think he should have kissed me at last, and—then said he meant nothing by it! What does he think I gave him the chance for the idiot?"—Seattle Post Intelligencer.

Reversing Things.

"You ought to be ashamed of yourself to sell me such eggs," said the excited woman to her grocer.

"What is the matter with them ma'am?" replied the man with the apron.

"Matter? Look at the size of them! They're hardly as large as hallstones!"

THE MEN IN CLASS A1

A sound, healthy man is never a back number. A man can be as vigorous and able at seventy as at twenty. Condition, not years, puts you in the discard. A system weakened by overwork and careless living brings old age prematurely.

Don't wait until you have been rejected. Commence to be a first-class man now. Go to your druggist at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They are made of the pure, original, imported Haarlem Oil—the kind your great-grandfather used.

Not Hard to Satisfy.

There were two plates of cake on the table and the hostess asked Arthur which he preferred, chocolate or coconut. "Oh, I'm not particular like some folks is," said the little chap; "an' so I'll just have a piece of each kind."

Don't think he's slow because of the tortoiseshell he wears.
