GENERAL STUART HEINTZELMAN
(1876-1935)

GENERAL STUART HEINTZELMAN, a grandson of General Samuel P. Heintzelman, a Union general in the Civil War, was born on November 19, 1876. Shortly after graduating from the United States Military Academy in 1899 he was sent to China with the China Relief Expedition. After brief duty in China he served approximately two years in the Philippine Islands. From 1909 to 1912 and from 1914 to 1916 General Heintzelman was an instructor in the Army Service School. From 1916 to 1917 he served as an instructor at Princeton University, receiving an honorary M. A. degree while there.

Following the declaration of war between the United States and Germany, General Heintzelman was in the vanguard of U. S. Forces sent to France and was attached to the Operation Section, G.H.Q., until June 1918. He was Chief of Staff of the 4th Corps until September 1918, and on October 1, 1918 was promoted to Brigadier General.

For his exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services while overseas, General Heintzelman was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal, and was also awarded three foreign honors—France's Croix de Guerre with Palm and the Commander Legion of Honor, and Italy's Commander Order of the Crown.

Upon his return to the United States in 1919, General Heintzelman was made director of the General Staff College, remaining in that capacity until 1921 when he was appointed Assistant Chief of Staff. On December 1, 1921, while serving as Commandant of the Command and General Staff School at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, he was promoted to Major General, the rank he held until his death on July 6, 1935.
